Defendants.)

THIS MATTER having come before the Court upon Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction, pursuant to DC R. Civ. P. 65, and in consideration of the record herein, including the pleadings, briefs and affidavits filed in this matter, argument of counsel, and other evidence, this Court finds that Plaintiff will be irreparably harmed if Defendants are not enjoined as prayed; that the balance of hardship weighs strongly in favor of Plaintiff; that Plaintiff has demonstrated the required level of likelihood of success on the merits; and that the public interest will be served by grant of the Motion.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants must forthwith either withdraw all restrictions they have imposed on the right of State Farm Agents to sell new State Farm insurance policies, or consent that State Farm agents may sell new insurance policies issued by other companies where State Farm does not permit them to sell State Farm policies.

Let the Clerk of Court provide a copy of this Order to the parties.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

This _____ day of _____, 2003.

The Honorable Neal E. Kravitz
